

Communications Director Job Ad

Garrison Diversion Conservancy District in Carrington, ND, is accepting applications for a Communications Director.

Responsibilities:

Develop and direct communications program including: news releases, newsletters, website content, presentations, magazine articles, annual report, brochures and website. Write, edit and proofread copy. Serve as media contact. Represent organization at selected functions.

Qualifications:

Candidate should possess excellent writing, grammar, communication and presentation skills, be self-starting and detail/deadline oriented, professional, articulate and have ability to multitask. A bachelor's degree in communications or similar field preferred. Two years experience in communications field preferred.

Salary is dependent upon experience. Please send resume and cover letter to Garrison Diversion Conservancy District, PO Box 140, Carrington, ND 58421, or to merrim@daktel.com by August 7, 2010.